Much discussion considering the serious health issues of the COVID-19 virus, Center of Disease Control (CDC) recommendations, local, state, and federal guidelines and given the Department of Labor's Office of Labor-Management Standards (OLMS) recent advisory which, recognizes that due to the disruption caused by COVID-19, "it may be difficult or impossible for some unions to conduct timely union officer elections" In consideration of the reasons stated above and our paramount concern for the health, safety and well-being of our members and their families the executive board voted to postpone the election of Local Union Officers until a later date.
